there.

Why is this night different from all other nights? and so begins a Passover Seder, a feast of food, story and song. Beth Chai, our neighbor and long time tenant has invited RRUUC to attend the 2017 Potluck Passover Seder here on April 15, 2017 at 6:30 pm. Children of all ages are welcome and included. Please sign up here to pay and let Beth Chai know you'll be

The Easter Egg Hunt returns! And Egg Decorating! Easter Sunday, April 16, after Time for All Ages, both services. Adult or teen help would be soooo wonderful!

Teacher Appreciation Luncheon The RE Committee is holding a teacher appreciation luncheon for teachers and their families on May 21, 2017. We have secured the location and sent out the invitations and we ask you - adults not teaching, to donate a dish or financial contribution to let them know how grateful you are. Sign up here. We look forward to thanking this group of 60+ volunteers, who help us teach our children of all ages guiding values and morals -- so needed in this time.

Two Ways for your Child to practice Stewardship The Services Auction begins May 7th, donations deadline 4/30 - what talent can they share that other kids would be interested in – drawing, magic, teaching a game; practicing a skill; baking; cooking – limitless. Donation forms can be found here. Have a well-conditioned possession that another child (or adult) may wish to purchase at the Spring Fiesta auction on May 6th? Set it aside for further instructions!

This is so important, we lined it up outside of our normal way..... Religious Education classes for children and youth are funded by pledges alone. Please make sure, whether member or friend, you complete an annual pledge here. If you are fairly new and not yet fully committed, that's exactly where you should be. Worship donations are gratefully accepted but put a wee note on your calendar a few months from now and if we are all still together, hit that pledge button here or at the website.
