

FEES FOR WEDDINGS AND SERVICES OF UNION – as of April, 2011

The ministers will officiate without charge at weddings and services of union for people who have been active members of the congregation for at least one year. If active members' weddings take place at locations other than RRUUC, ministers may, at their discretion, request compensation for mileage.

For members whose weddings taking place on RRUUC premises, there is no charge for the use of the premises, but a custodial fee will be applied. In addition, members may choose to give an optional appreciation directly to the minister or make a gift to the Ministers' Discretionary Fund. Non-members and new members of less than one year will be invited to consult the congregation's office for information about building rentals, and to discuss clergy fees directly with the minister.

Ceremony honoraria for non-members and new members of less than one year are established by and at the discretion of the ministers. As of April, 2011, these honoraria are:

Ceremony at RRUUC, without rehearsal - $500

Ceremony at RRUUC, with rehearsal - $550

Ceremony at another location, without rehearsal - $550

Ceremony at another location, with rehearsal - $650

Note: in addition to the above fees, mileage may be charged for weddings at locations other than RRUUC
