

STRANDS OF COMPASSION Benefit Concert

Joanne Kong, pianist
Christoph Wagner, cellist

Sunday, March 19
3:00 pm

River Road Unitarian
Universalist Congregation
6301 River Road
Bethesda, MD

We invite all to savor this brief respite to enjoy connections and inspiration for mind, body, and spirit!

Sponsored by the RRUUC
Animal
Ministry

The RRUUC Animal Ministry will present internationally-acclaimed concert artists Christoph Wagner, cellist, and Joanne Kong, pianist in "Strands of Compassion," to benefit the Montgomery County Partners for Animal Well-being (MCPAW).

Suggested donation of $15 but please feel free to give more or less. All donations are welcome and will benefit MCPAW for the development of the no-cost Montgomery County Spay Neuter Initiative Program (MCSNIP). Donations can be made at the door or online at mcpaw.org.

These activist virtuosos will weave together music, reflections, and imagery in an inspiring event that will illuminate how embracing the connections we have to the natural world and all beings can bring about transformative spiritual growth, positive change, and planetary healing. This unique event will include beautiful music by Chopin, Rachmaninoff, Liszt and others.

The program will be followed by a reception with our guest artists and delicious plant-based snacks.

In addition to being live in the Sanctuary, the program will be live-streamed: <https://youtube.com/live/XdttWDLYHI4?feature=share>

For more information, please contact tonja.nansel@gmail.com.