

RRUUC SHELTER WEEK

March 17 - 22, 2024

During Shelter Week, the RRUUC congregation provides five days of meals for 38 women living at the Interfaith Works Women's Center, a Rockville homeless shelter run by Interfaith Works.

- Interfaith Works is a non-profit coalition of more than 165 diverse congregations working together to help the poor and homeless in Montgomery County (iworksmc.org).
- The Rockville shelter connects its residents with housing, health care, and social services to promote self-sufficiency.

What can I do?

- Provide parts of a dinner (main course, hot vegetables, pre-packaged bags of salad, bread, dessert) or breakfast food and 18 hard-boiled eggs, fresh fruit, milk, etc.
- Donate items such as sugar, coffee, napkins, laundry detergent.
- Volunteer as a driver for one evening, You and another driver (each in your own car) will transport the food from RRUUC to the Shelter. (Arrive at church at 4:45 pm, leave for Shelter at 5 pm)
- Volunteer to serve dinner at the Shelter for one evening. (Arrive there at 6, leave at 7:30 pm)

How do I sign up?

- On the RRUUC website, go to the Shelter Week webpage and click on the Sign-Up Genius link. You can also find the Shelter Week Sign-Up link in the eWeekly.

Who can help?

- People of all ages.

Where is the shelter located?

- 2 Taft Court, Suite 100, Rockville, MD 20850. Parking is easy.

Questions?

- Send an email to shelterweek@rruuc.org